ABOUT

Rev. Victor R. Patterson, MDiv, is a passionate pastor, dynamic speaker, and dedicated youth advocate whose life and ministry embody the transformative power of second chances and God's unrelenting grace. He currently serves as the pastor of Fifth Avenue A.M.E. Zion Church in Troy, New York, where he leads with authenticity, vision, and a deep commitment to spiritual and community renewal. He is known for his ability to connect across generations, especially with children and youth. Whether speaking in sanctuaries, school gyms, or community centers, Victor brings a unique blend of honesty, warmth, and conviction to every space he enters. His work centers around creating healing-centered environments where people—especially young people—can grow, lead, and thrive.

"I believe young people don't just need inspiration — they need adults who are willing to show up, speak truth, and stay present - Victor Patterson"
